GREETINGS

We greet you with gladness
This beautiful day,
As the bright golden moments
Glide swiftly away.

We extend to you Greetings
Of welcome sincere,
We salute you right friendly
Partake of our cheer.

We greet you with gladness
May blessings from Heaven,
Ever bless you and cheer you
So freely be given.
May each day of life's journey
Grow brighter 'till done,
When the twilight grows fainter
And life's race is run.

PREFACE

The knowledge of one's family holds a special and unique fascination for the average person, for within the printed pages we seem to made the personal acquaintance of kindred long gone from this world, and our need to feel the continuity of life in a way that strengthens faith.

Indeed the qualities that were best in our ancestry we recognize as best today and forevermore. We dwell with pleasure and pride upon ancestral courage, faith and fidelity to all that was pure. They were indeed great and noble Godly lives.

Family by family kept records are all too quickly lost and forgotten in the busy rush of this present day world, and we realize that many imperfections may be found in this history, but we have done the best we could. We desire to thank each and everyone who so kindly contributed information and aided in this work.

We do hope this may prove a blessing to all, and that we may all meet together in that Eternal Home.

EXPLANATIONS

To find lineage: Look in the index for your name and page. The number before your name is your number. The number following your name will be your father's or mother's number.

If you will follow their number in the same way, it will give his or her parent's number, and so on to the beginning. Only direct descendants are numbered.

The asterisk (*) preceding a name signifies a completed record.

THE JACOB WITTMER HOMESTEAD - ELGIN, IOWA.

Jacob Wittmer and Mary Reusser

1—Jacob Wittmer born in Bern, Switzerland, April 25, 1823, and Mary Reusser, born January 1, 1830, also in Bern, Switzerland were united in marriage in 1848 at Bern, Switzerland.

Three years later in 1851 Jacob Wittmer, with his wife Mary, and their two small children, Mary, who was aged 21 months, and Jacob, who was six months of age, left their home in Bern, Switzerland, to immigrate to America. After a voyage of thirty-six days crossing the ocean they arrived in New York.

The previous year, that is in 1850, Christian Reusser, father of Mary Wittmer, made a chest for them in anticipation of their long journey, and in which they placed all of their earthly possessions. Incidentally the top of this chest also served as their table. With them they took a supply of butter, potatoes and onions when they left their native land, and in that way prepared some of their food on their voyage.

Both Jacob Wittmer and Mary, his wife, were good sailors, as neither of them had a sick day aboard ship. However, the children became very ill, and of the thirteen small children aboard this ship, only their two children, that is Mary and Jacob, beside one other child survived to reach the shores of America.

After their long and tiresome journey they finally reached land, but upon going to a hotel in New York for lodging they found it was completely filled, which any of you who have traveled long distances can realize was indeed a disappointment to these weary travelers. However, the proprietor was a kindly person and offered them his own room so they could rest comfortably.

They first located in Monroe County, Ohio, and the morning after their arrival there, as Grandmother Wittmer awakened and looked at the hilly countryside, she had a feeling of great anxiety, but she thought the Lord Will Provide.

Since they were not completely satisfied, after living in Ohio for a year, they moved and located near Elgin, Iowa. The route they took was down the Ohio River and up the Mississippi until they arrived at McGregor, Iowa. They together with another family—the Rothlisberger Family, whom they met in Ohio, traveled together and they selected a site to erect a home. Their main objective was to build their home where there were trees and a spring of water. Thus their reason for locating near Elgin, Iowa.

These two families then proceeded to cut down trees to clear the land, after which they built their log cabin with the logs which they had hewn. This home had two rooms—one upstairs and one downstairs, with only a ladder to reach the upstairs room. The Wittmer and Rothlisberger Families lived together one year, during which time they purchased a horse and one cow.

Jacob Wittmer followed the carpenter trade. He and his wife worked diligently and prospered, which together with fields of growing crops rewarded their efforts and they purchased a nice farm. In addition to general farming they also did dairy farming making cheese which was sold at Elkader, Iowa, and which they delivered by oxen, the distance being about 24 miles from their home. Here they reared their family and few can know such happiness as filled their home.

They lived here until the year 1889, at which time they together with their daughter Lydia, moved to the Bern, Kansas area, where some of their children had gone previously. When two of their daughters, Mary Habeger and family, and Lena Strahm and family settled there, the State of Kansas was still an unsurveyed land of prairie.

It is interesting to note that the town of Bern, Kansas, due to the fact that other Swiss families settled there, was named for their native city of Bern, Switzerland.

Here Jacob and Mary Wittmer lived in a home across the roadway from their daughter Mary Habeger's home for thirteen years, and where they enjoyed the frequent visits of their children and their families who lived nearby; namely, their son Jacob Wittmer, and their daughters, Mary Habeger, Rosa Schrock, Lena Strahm, Anna Frieden and Lydia Wenger, as well as their children who lived in Morton, Illinois; that is, their son John Wittmer, and daughters Louisa Belsley, Emma Hauter and Sarah Getz, who journeyed by train to visit their dear parents whenever it was possible for them to do so.

Later two of their children, Rosa Schrock and Anna Frieden, with their families moved from their homes near Bern, Kansas, to live in the southern Kansas and Oklahoma area.

It was after the passing of Jacob Wittmer from this life into Eternity on July 16, 1902, that his wife Mary Wittmer moved into an apartment in the home of her daughter Mary Habeger, which was furnished with her own furnishings from her previous home. Her friendly hospitality again prevailed here, and she often enjoyed family visits and received other guests.

During these years she would spend time visiting in the homes of her children, who were always happy indeed to have her, and the grandchildren were delighted when Grandmother was again coming for another of her lengthy visits. It was during one of her visits in the home of her daughter Lydia Wenger, that she became ill and was bed-fast for a number of months, and where she passed from this life to her Eternal Home on October 30th, 1912.

She was laid to rest in the little country cemetery where her beloved husband Jacob Wittmer, was laid to rest ten years earlier, which is located beside the church of their faith near Bern, Kansas.

Both Jacob and Mary Wittmer were long and truly devout members of the Apostolic Christian Church, always being willing workers in the House of the Lord, and helping in every way they could. Blessed indeed are they who die in the Lord.

The following is an excerpt taken from a writing that Mary Wittmer had placed in the chest given to her by her Father:

"Throughout Life we shared much happiness and also some sorrow, but our Heavenly Father was with us at all times with His Great Love, Mercy and Grace, and Blessed us richly."

THE LOOM OF TIME

Man's life is laid in the loom of time
To a pattern he does not see,
While the weavers work and the shuttles fly
Till the dawn of eternity.

Some shuttles are filled with silver threads
And some with threads of gold,
While often but the darker hues
Are all that they may hold.

But the weaver watches with skillful eye
Each shuttle fly to and fro,
And sees the pattern so deftly wrought
As the loom moves sure and slow.

God surely planned the pattern;
Each thread, the dark and fair
Is chosen by His master skill
And placed in the web with care.

He only knows its beauty,
And guides the shuttles which hold
The threads so unattractive,
As well as the threads of gold.

Not till each loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God reveal the pattern
And explain the reason why.

The dark threads were as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
For the pattern which He planned.

Unknown

HE'S STANDING BY ME ALL THE WHILE

He's standing by me all the while;
He'd have me look to Him and smile,
To look away from doubt and fear,
And know that He is standing near.
And sometimes when the shadows fall,
I need to know that God is all;
No longer need I be afraid,
For Jesus is at hand to aid.

He's standing by me all the time;
It matters not the hour or clime;
I cannot falter, cannot fail;
His love forever will prevail.
I'll not complain, my lot bemoan;
I'll never again think I'm alone,
For Jesus stands at hand to cheer
And have me know He's very near.

He's standing by me night and day;
I sometimes think I hear Him say:
"Just lean on me and have no fear
And some good blessing will appear;
Just lift your thought to Me and know,
That naught but truth can e'er be so."
I always feel that I can try
When I know Jesus is near by.

TWO PRAYERS

Last night my little boy confessed to me
Some childish wrong;
And kneeling at my knee,
He prayed with tears—
“Dear God, make me a man
Like Daddy—wise and strong;
I know you can.”

Then while he slept
I knelt beside his bed,
Confessed my sins,
And prayed with low-bowed head.
“O God, make me a child
Like my child here—
Pure, guileless,
Trusting Thee with faith sincere.”

FOUR THINGS

Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true:
To think without confusion—clearly,
To act from honest motives—purely,
To love his fellowmen—sincerely,
And trust in God and Heaven, securely.

Henry Van Dyke

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want . . .

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters . . .

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake . . .

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me . . .

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . . .

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Jacob Wittmer Line

3—Jacob Wittmer (1) son of Jacob Wittmer and Mary Reusser. Born December 10, 1850, in Bern, Switzerland. Died May 2, 1906.

At the age of six months, he with his parents, immigrated to America, later arriving by ox team in the Elgin, Iowa community, where he grew to manhood on a farm.

On February 17, 1877, Jacob Wittmer married Lena Mitchell (daughter of Joseph Mitchell and Elizabeth Beer). Born November 10, 1860, at West Union, Iowa. Died August 25, 1944 at Bern, Kansas.

They made their home with his wife's folks in the West Union community, later moving back to Elgin to help his Father operate his farm, until his parents moved to Kansas, when they returned to the West Union farm, which they later acquired.

In the year 1892 Jacob Wittmer and his wife, with their family, moved to a farm owned by his Father northwest of Berwick, Kansas, so as to be near his now ageing Parents and others of the family. In 1894 they purchased a farm of their own six and one-half miles north and west of his present location, near Bern, Kansas, to which he moved and where he passed away.

“God is in every tomorrow
Therefore I live for today,
Certain of finding at sunrise,
Guidance and strength for the way;
Power for each moment of weakness,
Hope for each moment of pain,
Comfort for every sorrow,
Sunshine and joy after rain.”

THE PATH OF RIGHT

True worth is in being, not seeming,
In doing each day that goes by
Some little good, not in dreaming
Of great things to do by and by.
For whatever men say in their blindness,
And in spite of the fancies of youth,
There is nothing so kingly as kindness,
And nothing so royal as truth.

We get back our mete as we measure;
We cannot do wrong and feel right,
Nor can we give pain and feel pleasure,
For justice avenges each slight.
The air for the wing of the sparrow,
The bush for the robin and wren,
But always the path that is narrow and straight
For the children of men.

Selected.

In order to grow in grace, we must be much alone. It is not in society—even Christian society—that the soul grows most vigorously. In one single quiet hour of prayer, it will often make more progress than in days of company with others. It is in the desert that the dew falls the freshest, and the air is purest.

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

An old man going a lone highway
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and wide and steep,
With waters rolling cold and deep.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sullen stream had no fears for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength with building here.
Your journey will end with the ending day,
You never again will pass this way.
You've crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at eventide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head.
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
The chasm that was as nought to me
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be:
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim –
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him."

HOW TO FIND EASTER

“Thirty Days hath September,”
 Every person can remember;
 But to know when Easter come,
 Puzzles even scholars, some.

When March the twenty-first is past,
 Just watch the silvery moon;
 And when you see it full and round,
 Know Easter’ll be here soon.

After the moon has reached its full,
 Then Easter will be here
 The very Sunday after,
 In each and every year.

And if it hap on Sunday
 The moon should reach its height,
 The Sunday following this event
 Will be the Easter bright.

I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU

Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say:
"I know something good about you!"
And then treat us just that way?"

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp warm and true
Carried with it this assurance:
"I know something good about you!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us,
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If we praised the good we see,
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking too:
You know something good about ME
And I know something good about YOU.

The strong love-touch of the Master's hand
 Brought pardon, and strength to endure;
 It is here today, just for you, just for me,
 Unfailing, enabling, and sure.

Lord, give me Thy touch as I call unto Thee,
 I need it, to carry me through;
 Without Thee, impossible, Lord to go on,
 But with Thee, all things I can do.

The Food Worker Union

The Food Worker Union is a national organization of food workers. It was founded in 1968 and has since then grown to become one of the largest unions in the United States. The union represents over 1.5 million food workers in various industries, including grocery stores, restaurants, and food processing plants. The union's primary goal is to improve the wages, benefits, and working conditions of its members. It has achieved significant success in this regard, securing higher wages and better benefits for its members across the country.

History of the Food Worker Union

The Food Worker Union was founded in 1968 by a group of food workers who were dissatisfied with the low wages and poor working conditions they were experiencing. They organized a union and fought for recognition from their employers. The union's early efforts were focused on organizing workers in the grocery store industry. Over time, the union expanded its reach to include workers in restaurants, food processing plants, and other food-related industries. The union has a long history of fighting for the rights of food workers and has been instrumental in securing better wages and benefits for its members.

Membership and Growth

The Food Worker Union has a membership of over 1.5 million food workers. The union's membership has grown steadily over the years, reflecting the increasing number of food workers in the United States. The union's growth has been driven by its focus on organizing workers in the grocery store industry, which has become a major source of employment for food workers. The union has also been successful in organizing workers in other food-related industries, such as restaurants and food processing plants. The union's membership is diverse, representing workers of various ethnicities and backgrounds. The union's growth has also led to increased political influence, as the union has become a major force in the labor movement.

Goals and Objectives of the Food Worker Union

The Food Worker Union has several key goals and objectives. The primary goal is to improve the wages and benefits of its members. The union has achieved significant success in this regard, securing higher wages and better benefits for its members across the country. Another key goal is to improve the working conditions of its members. The union has fought for better working conditions, including shorter work hours, safer workplaces, and better benefits. The union also aims to provide education and training opportunities for its members. The union has established several programs to help its members improve their skills and advance their careers. The union's goals and objectives are focused on the well-being of its members and the broader food industry.

Political and Social Impact of the Food Worker Union

The Food Worker Union has had a significant political and social impact. The union has been instrumental in securing better wages and benefits for food workers across the country. The union's political influence has also led to increased attention to the needs of food workers. The union has been successful in lobbying for legislation that improves the lives of food workers. The union has also been a major force in the labor movement, fighting for the rights of workers in other industries. The union's social impact is also significant, as it has helped to improve the lives of millions of food workers. The union's focus on education and training has helped to improve the skills and careers of its members. The union's political and social impact is a testament to its commitment to the well-being of its members and the broader food industry.

HE LEADETH ME

“In pastures green? not always; sometimes He
Who knoweth best, in kindness leadeth me
In weary ways where heavy shadows be:

“Out of the sunshine, warm and soft and bright;
Out of the sunshine into darkest night.
I oft would faint with sorrow and affright,

“Only for this—I Know He holds my hand!
So Whether in the green or desert land,
I trust, although I may not understand.

“So, whether on the hilltops high and fair
I dwell, or in the sunless valleys where
The shadows lie—what matter? He is there!

“Where'er He leads me I can safely go;
And in the blest hereafter I shall know
Why in His wisdom God hath led me so.”

Authur Unknown.

Then He shall come gently, — Lead us by His Hand
From our weary journey to the Fatherland.
There when strife is over, Praise to God we'll bring,
With the righteous chorus Hallelujah sing!

THE DAY OF LIFE

Have you ever been up in the morning
To watch the beautiful sun
Come up from the grounds of the eastland
To shine till the day is done?

Have you ever watched the sunset
When it lit the western sky,
And compared it to life's sunset
After busy years gone by?

Like the sunset of day, God made it,
To be beautiful, quiet and calm.
For after the sunset of life on earth
In heaven the soul goes on.

THIS I KNOW

I know not where tomorrow's road
 May point my pilgrim way;
I may not taste its joy or care,
 Nor see beyond today;
But this I know—my Father plans
 The path I cannot see;
He knows each turn, each hill and dale,
 And He will walk with me.

I know not if my way be bright
 Or dark with storm and rain,
I know not what it holds for me
 Of pleasure or of pain;
But this I know—my Saviour's love
 Prepares my path each day,
And held within His mighty hand
 I need not fear the way.

I know not what the future holds,
 Nor what life's evening brings,
But with the glad salute of faith
 I hail its opening wings;
For this I know—in God the Lord
 Shall all my needs be met;
I'll trust tomorrow to His love
 Who has not failed me yet.

He knows, He loves, He cares,
 Nothing this thought can dim;
Only the best He gives to those
 Who leave the choice with Him.
